All of the eight above-listed directors were elected to the Board.

Commenting on the AGM, Seabridge Chairman and CEO welcomed Clem Pelletier as a new director to the company. “Although Clem is new to the board, his involvement and knowledge of KSM is extensive. Clem acted as the lead environmental consultant to the Company starting in 2008 when we filed the initial KSM project description document with the regulators, and continued to shepherd KSM through the environmental assessment process through its successful completion in late 2014.”

Seabridge holds a 100% interest in several North American gold projects. The Company’s principal assets are the KSM property located near Stewart, British Columbia, Canada and the Courageous Lake gold project located in Canada’s Northwest Territories.
